

Asia Literacy Teacher Professional Learning In-School Programs

Teaching Cultural Understandings of Asia One Day 9am-3pm

Who will benefit from this Program?

This program will benefit primary and secondary teachers with an interest in embedding inter-cultural understandings of Asia within their curriculum area. Teachers from diverse curriculum areas will find this program beneficial, particularly those in the arts, SOSE, geography, history, English, and LOTE.

What does this program cover?

This is a one day program where participants will learn about an innovative approach to teaching inter-cultural understandings in the classroom. This program was originally designed to support student learning in preparation for in-country visit programs. It offers a new approach to building deeper cultural understandings amongst primary & secondary students.

This program includes practical, detailed teaching strategies and sample activities, with suggested sequencing of student learning over an 8-10 week period.
